

Situated Ecologies

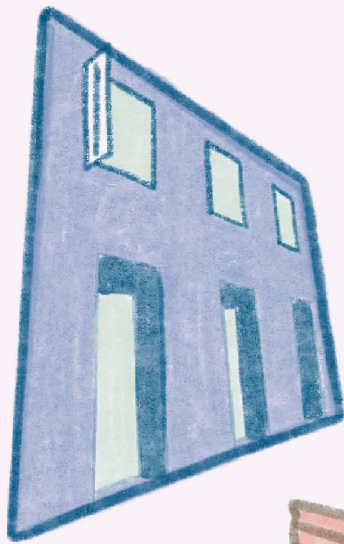

Welcome to Modern Art Oxford's summer activity pack. In this pack you will find lots of exciting activities inspired by the projects we are doing together with our local communities.

Throughout the summer holidays, we invite you to take part in Situated Ecologies, our programme of off-site collaborations with artists and community groups across the city.

You can explore the special places in Oxford where you have made friends and connections, places you enjoy and will remember for years to come.

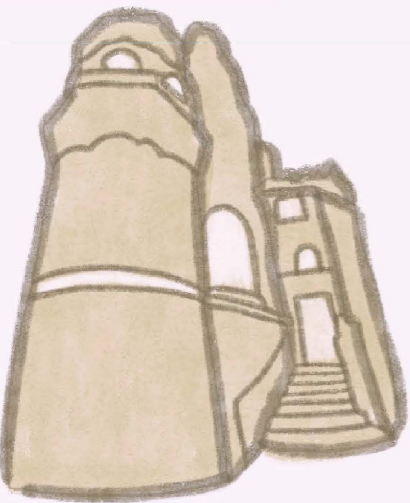

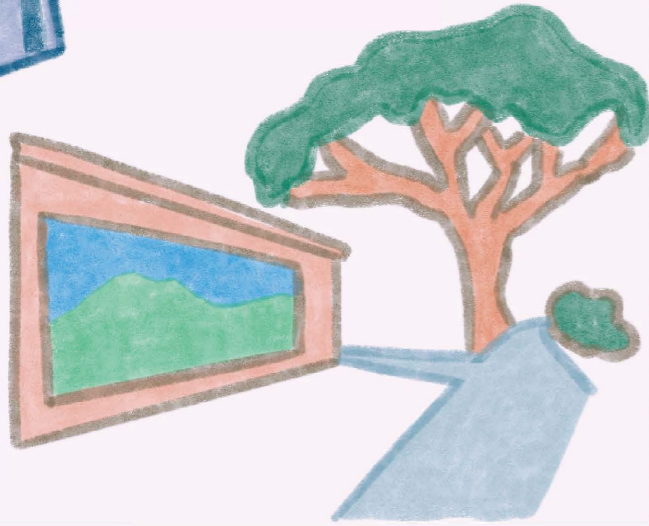

Share your story and tell us about the creative things you like to do in Oxford.

Can you find these places on the map?

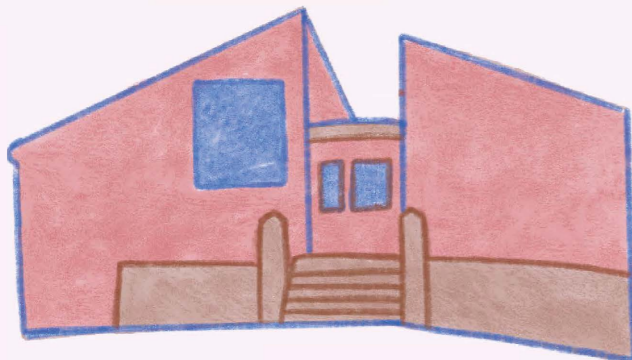

Modern Art Oxford

Florence Park

Museum of Oxford

Cotteslowe Community Centre

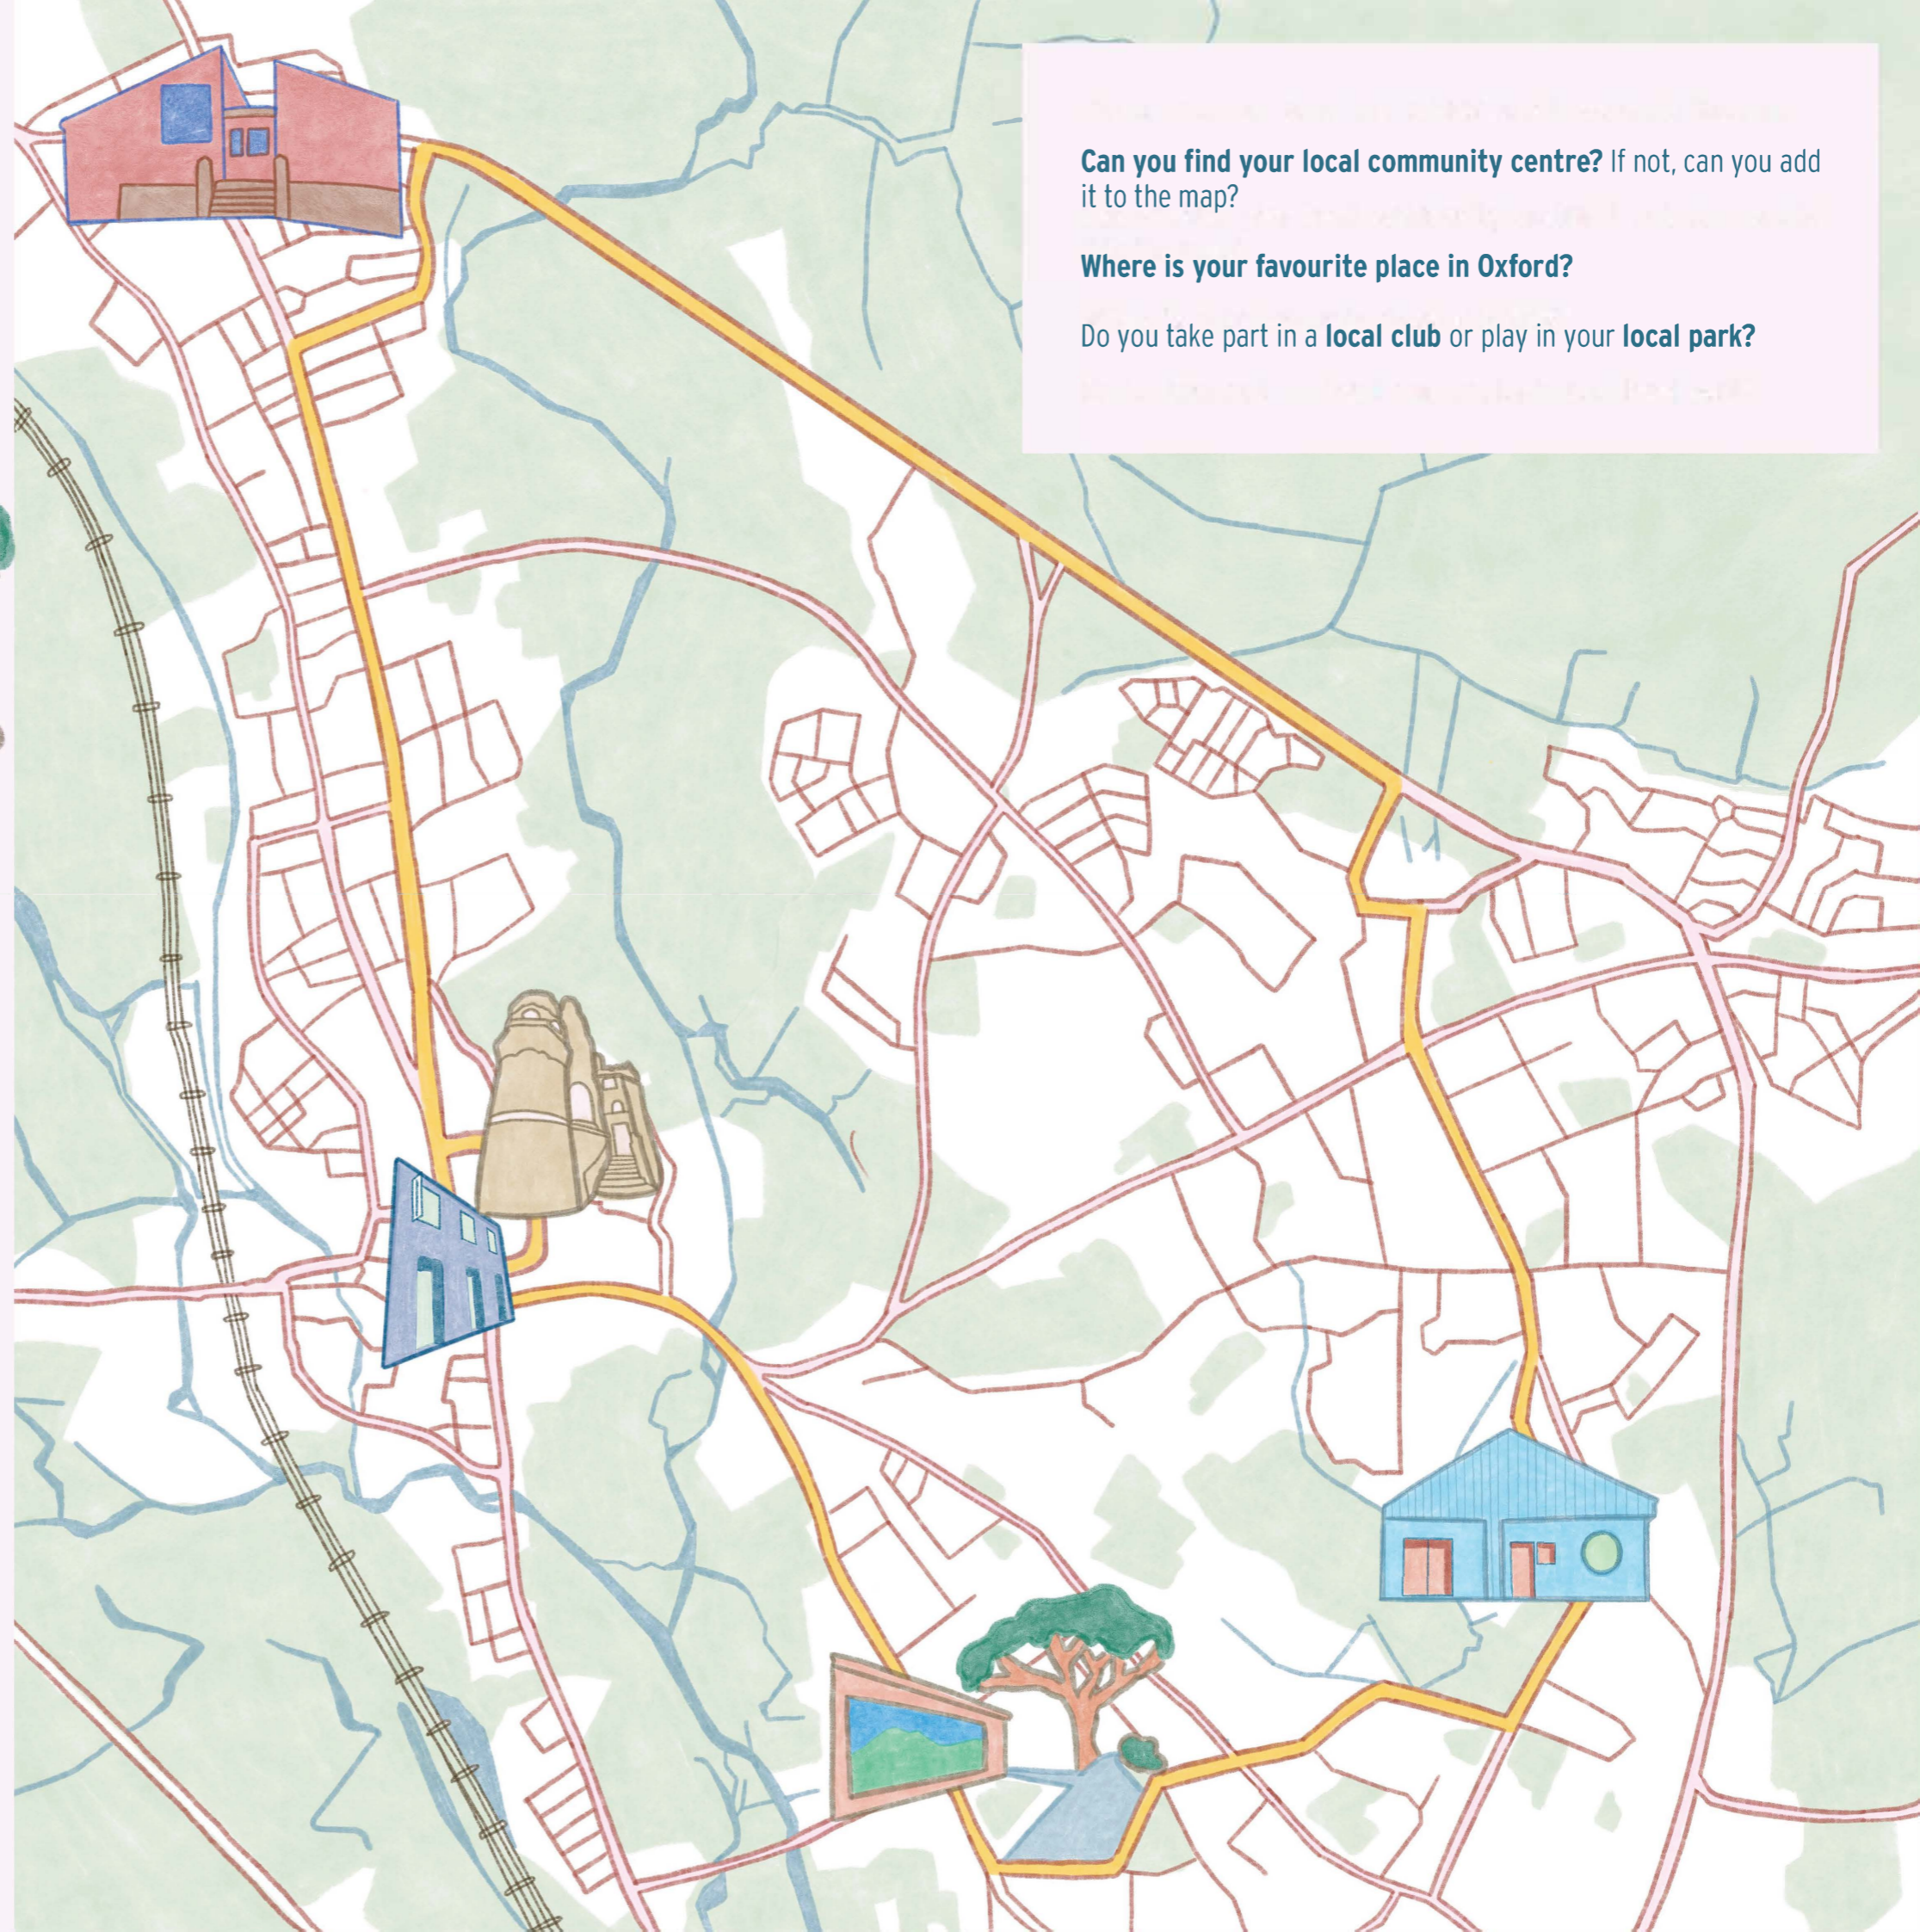

Bullington Community Centre

Can you find your local community centre? If not, can you add it to the map?

Where is your favourite place in Oxford?

Do you take part in a local club or play in your local park?

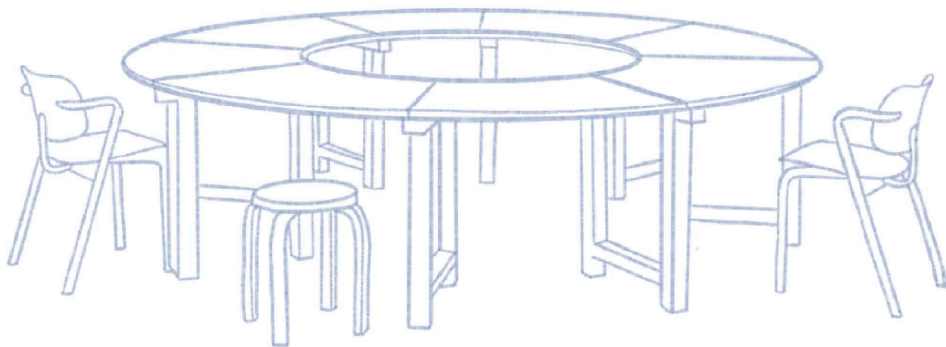

Fill this space with the things you notice about the changing environment in Oxford.

How does the weather make you feel? What can you see, hear, and smell? What does the ground feel like under your feet?

Modern Art Oxford will be reopening in autumn with an exciting new Studio, a community-inspired ground floor gallery, and artist-designed café.

Join us to celebrate shared creativity and take part in the exciting new workshops and activities in our Studio!
